Dear Fr. Greer,

I offer you my warmest greetings from Jamaica, and I thank you for continuing to support me in my ministry.

As you know, I am continuing to seek to assist the many Jamaican students who are struggling to continue their studies in the face of challenging conditions. For these students, a laptop is an absolute necessity in order for them to continue their education, and many can scarcely afford to pay their tuition fees, much less purchase a laptop and other supplies.

I wish to express how grateful I am for you and your parishioners and friends who have been so generous, and I am appealing once more for their help.

I am currently seeking to obtain six laptops for needy students who are unable to afford a device. For these students, this assistance will enable them to continue their studies.

Please be assured of my prayers, and my heartfelt appreciation for all your efforts to assist the poor and needy.

Yours in Christ,

Charles H. Dufour
Archbishop Emeritus of Kingston
